Douglassville, Tex.
Dec. 17th 1925.

Dear Cos. Jina:

I have grown so anxious over the fate of an oil painting, "Texas Blue Bonnets," I mailed to you Nov. 27th last insured parcel post, that I am writing you to please let me know by return mail if it has been rec'd. You may have written me and your letter failed to come; but my impression of you is that you are very prompt to reply in any matter & fear it has been lost. It was a gift of appreciation to you from a
